

Northeast Historic Film - MiniDV Tapes Available for Loan

For Non-Commercial Use Only

Contact: Judy McGeorge (judy@oldfilm.org) – Tel: (207) 469-0924

Northeast Historic Film www.oldfilm.org

PO Box 900, Bucksport, ME 04416

Title	Description	Details	Creator	Date
Archie Stewart sound films	Archie Stewart was one of the earliest amateur filmmakers to use sound on his home movies. He lived in Newburgh, New York, and Grand Lake Stream, Maine. Includes an automobile trip crossing into Maine and visiting LL Bean to purchase supplies for a hunting trip.	28 mins., b&w, col., sound	Thomas Archibald Stewart	1936- 1939
Aroostook County, 1920s	Agriculture: potato growing with horse power. Downtown Presque Isle, Maine. Aroostook Valley Railroad electric trolley	20 mins., b&w, silent with music	C.W. Benjamin	1920
Cherryfield, 1938	A terrific home movie about rural spring in Cherryfield, Maine, in 1938.	6 mins., b&w, silent	Lester Bridgham	1938
Bangor Historical Society/ WABI Collection: Cold War	From the Bangor Historical Society / WABI collection: Civil defense, military preparedness, political perspectives during the Cold War era	50 mins., b&w, silent and sound	WABI-TV	1953- 1970
Earliest Maine Films	Lobstering, trout fishing, logging, canoeing on Moosehead Lake, and potato growing, from 1901 to 1920.	44 mins., b&w, silent with music	American Mutoscope and Biograph Co.	1902- 1920
From Stump To Ship: A 1930 Logging Film	The long-log industry from forest to on board a schooner bound for New York. A National Film Registry title.	28 mins., b&w, sound	Alfred Ames and Dr. Howard Kane	1930
Goodall Mills: The Story of Chase Velmo	Goodall Mills was a family-owned textile mill in Sanford, Maine. The film shows the industrial process including men and women at work.	60 mins., b&w, silent	Caravel Films, Inc.	ca. 1926

Ice Harvesting Sampler	Five short films showing a near-forgotten New England industry. Narration by Philip C. Whitney explains process and tools.	26 mins., b&w and color, sound	Northeast Historic Film	1930s- 1940s
John F. Kennedy at Univ. of Maine (October 1963)	Anniversary of the Cuban Missile Crisis, October 1963, at University of Maine homecoming.	30 mins., b&w, sound	WABI-TV	1963
Launching of the Doris Hamlin	Ship launching of a four-masted schooner in Harrington, Maine.	mins., b&w, silent	[creator(s) unknown]	1919
Maine's Harvesters of the Sea	Fisheries including shrimp, cod, and lobster.	28 mins., color, sound,	State of Maine Department of Sea and Shore Fisheries	1968
The Maine Lobster	Lobster fisheries and consumption with unusual footage including the assembly of lobster TV dinners.	30 mins., color, sound	State of Maine Department of Sea and Shore Fisheries	ca. 1955
Maine Marine Worm Industry (1941)	A documentary by the owner of the Maine Bait Company showing digging for worms, washing and packing them, and shipping them by rail or truck.	45 mins., color, silent	Ivan Flye	1941
Margaret Chase Smith Speech fragment	Declaration of her intention to run for President, includes Q&A.	17 mins., b&w, sound	WGAN-TV	1964
Movie Queen, Lubec	A pretend movie queen visits her home town in Down East Maine. Includes many Main Street businesses.	28 mins., b&w, silent	Margaret Cram	1936

Paris, 1929 and other views	Home movies of the Wright family in Paris, Maine, haying, mowing, picnics.	80 mins., b&w, silent	Elizabeth Woodman Wright	1929
Wabanaki: A New Dawn	Cultural survival and revival of Wabanaki of Maine and Maritime Canada. Interviews, music, dance. Produced on behalf of Maine Indian Tribal-State Commission.	25 mins., color, sound	Dennis Kostyk and David Westphal, Acadia Film Video	1995
Wohelo, 1919	An early promotional film of girls' camp activities on Sebago Lake, Maine, emphasizes woodcraft skills and canoeing..	10 mins., b&w, silent	Wohelo-Luther Gulick Camps	1919
Woodsmen and River Drivers, Another Day, Another Era	Unforgettable individuals who worked for the Machias Lumber Company; interviews with people who remembered the days of From Stump to Ship .	30 mins., color and b&w	David Weiss and Karan Sheldon	1989

These tapes are available to educators and students who are members of Northeast Historic Film (Annual membership Student/Educator $15, School or Non-Profit Organization $35.)

On-screen credit stating the title, and “Footage provided by Northeast Historic Film” must appear in any production using these tapes.

These works are licensed for Educational Purposes under the Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-ShareAlike License. To view a copy of this license, visit www.CreativeCommons.org or send a letter to Creative Commons, 559 Nathan Abbott Way, Stanford, California.